

The Texas Emergency Rental Assistance Program (TERAP) – Fact Sheet

Program Overview

The Texas Emergency Rental Assistance Program (TERAP) administered by the Harris County Community Services Department helps eligible Harris County tenants economically impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic stay in their homes, by providing up to six months of rental assistance. Assistance is available for both tenants who have been sued for eviction or tenants struggling to pay their rent.

Assistance can be used to pay the full contracted rent within the limits noted below and within the written guidelines of the Administrator, for at least one month of rental payments going forward and up to five months in arrears, for up to a total of six months. Any rental payments going forward must be for consecutive months.
